

Funds 4 Media

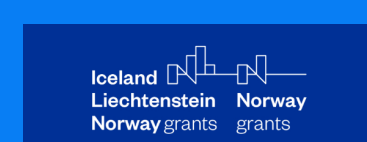

ISSUE XLIII | 2022

July

Baltic edition

Baltic Centre for Media Excellence has prepared this newsletter for you. Here you will find information about grants, webinars, workshops and other opportunities. Project is supported by the Fund for Bilateral Relations of the EEA and Norwegian Financial Mechanisms 2014-2021.

Best wishes,
news@baltic.media team

Highlights

Funding | Opportunities

Journalismfund.eu supports cross-border investigative reporting

Professional journalists who have an idea for research on European stories can apply for funding.

Journalismfund.eu organises the 2022 European Cross-Border Grants to support cross-border investigative journalism in Europe.

The grants are intended for teams of professional journalists from at least two different countries in Europe.

A total of EUR 200, 000 will be distributed over four rounds. Teams can also apply for a mentor to provide assistance during the investigation.

Deadline - August 18, 2022

More information

Reagan-Fascell Democracy Fellowship open

Journalists worldwide who wish to learn more about democracy can apply for a fellowship.

The Reagan-Fascell Democracy Fellows Program, organized by the National Endowment for Democracy (NED), aims to enable democratic practitioners, scholars and journalists to deepen their understanding of democracy and enhance their ability to promote democratic change.

Fellows are expected to be in residence at the International Forum for Democratic Studies in Washington March 1 to July 31, 2023 or Oct. 1, 2023 to Feb. 28, 2024. Working knowledge of English is required to be eligible.

Each fellow receives a monthly stipend for living expenses, plus health insurance and reimbursement for travel.

Deadline - October 17, 2022

More information

Opportunities

Workshop series focuses on writing solutions journalism articles

Students based in Europe can participate in an online workshop series focused on solutions journalism.

Catherine Edwards, an accredited trainer for the Solutions Journalism Network (SJN) will be hosting a series of student journalism workshops. This three-part workshop series is funded by SJN and will guide students through the process of writing a solutions-oriented article.

The training will take place in three one-hour sessions in August and September.

Deadline - August 8, 2022

More information

Global Press Journal seeks photo editor

Photographers with at least three to five years' experience in newsroom photo editing can apply for this remote position.

Global Press Journal (GPJ) is hiring a creative photo editor to work with its team of reporters around the world. GPJ is the award-winning news publication of Global Press.

The photo editor will work closely with the senior photo editor and photo team, and collaborate with reporters, editors and GPJ staff to contribute to visual curation and presentation on globalpressjournal.com. In addition, the photo editor will coach reporters through technical challenges and help them diagnose issues and solutions.

Interested candidates should have advanced proficiency in photograph editing software, specifically Lightroom and Photo Mechanic. Management experience and knowledge of multiple languages are a plus.

Deadline - August 12, 2022

More information

Telegram course on chemical weapons

Thomson Foundation has created the course "Reacting to a chemical attack". The course takes about 15 minutes. It will guide users on the types of chemical and biological weapons that have been used in recent years and how to recognize them.

Typical symptoms are listed alongside what to do in the event of a chemical attack.

The course is available in Ukrainian and English.

More information

Psychological support sessions for journalists

Media professionals can sign up for these support groups. The Reporters Without Borders and the Institute of Mass Information are organizing psychological support sessions for journalists and media professionals.

The sessions will be conducted by a professional psychotherapist and will be held in a closed format for small groups of journalists.

More information

Media Seminar in Germany

The Saxon Foundation for Media Education (SSM) has been organising the Central and Eastern European Journalists' Seminar for 10 - 14 journalists in Leipzig once a year in September since 2001. Journalists from Central and Eastern Europe who are not older than 40 and have a good knowledge of German can apply.

Participants learn about the concrete situation of the media in Saxony and are informed about media-political, technological and media-legal issues. The structures and working methods of television, radio, print and online in the dual media system in Germany are vividly conveyed.

More information

And..

The German-Northern European Journalists' Bursary

The German non-profit organisation IJP – International Journalists' Programmes announces its twenty-third bursary in 2022 for journalists from Germany and the five Nordic countries (Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden) as well as Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

Up to eleven German and eleven Nordic/Baltic journalists in total will have the opportunity to work for a media outlet in the respectively other country in 2022.

The application is open to any journalist from the Nordic countries between the ages 18 and 45, working for any print, radio or TV media (employed or freelancer). Fluency in German is not expected or a prerequisite for successful application. At least workable knowledge of English is essential.

The application deadline is 1 September 2022.

More information

BCME statement of support for Ukraine

"As Russia's military escalation in and around Ukraine continues apace, it is particularly important not to fall in traps of disinformation and under war propaganda pressure.

We condemn the violence and aggression that puts thousands of media professionals all over Ukraine in danger. We also stand in solidarity with independent Russian media who continue to report the truth in unprecedented conditions. Look for reliable and fact-checked news. Support independent media in Ukraine and Russia. Objective and quality information is extremely important," says Gunta Sloga, the director of Baltic Centre for Media Excellence.

Copyright © BCME

Unsubscribe